

ELECTION 2001

SPECIAL ISSUE

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE • PROVIDENCE, RHODE ISLAND

APRIL 5, 2001

Class of 2002

President

Students matter. Students should be heard. Vote for a student who knows students' needs.

T.J. Luty

Adam Seibel

My experience in ROTC, Friars Club and my Political Science background validate me as a qualified candidate for President of the Class of 2002.

Representatives

Jason Mis

I know what the students want. I know what the students need. Peanuts.

Laura Bahia

Short, sweet, and one year of experience representing the Class of 2002...enough said.

Patrick Sheldon

#3 on the ballot, #1 in your heart.

Maria McDermott

With three years experience on Congress and lots of enthusiasm and dedication, I'll be the best representative you've ever seen!

Colleen Slavin

I have leadership experience, I work well with others and I want to make sure the Class of 2002 has a fun senior year!

Marisa McGrody

If you want to spice things up vote MARISA!

Lisa Massaro

Class of 2002, let's work together to make great things happen.

2002 Uncontested Races

Cathleen Collins . . . Vice President

Craig MacLellan . . . Treasurer

Erin Cunningham . . . Secretary

VOTE TODAY, APRIL 5TH!

9:30 a.m. - 6 p.m.

Class of 2002: vote in lower Slavin

Classes of 2003/2004: vote in Raymond Cafeteria

DON'T FORGET TO BRING YOUR PC ID!

Class 2003

President

Steven Niemiec

Three times president means I get to make a rule!

Patrick Lynch

A necessary change, and a change for the better! Pat Lynch for President.

Representatives

Drew Larracey

Vote Drew! He's FAT with a PH.

Patrick Shea

Do not ask why, ask how.

Monica Erwin

If I'm re-elected, I'll do my best to make sure our junior year is full of fun events and new ideas.

Jay Higgins

I'll serve as a voice for the Class of 2003.

Photo not available.

Kelly Delmonte

Chrissy Walsh

Dan Jamroz
Vote for me.

James Malatino

Do, or do not. There is no "try."

Photo not available.

Kerry Cassidy

Be smart, vote Kerry Cassidy for Class of 2003 Representative! To get the job done right!

2003 Uncontested Races

Julie Holstrom . . . Vice President

Courtney Lyons . . . Treasurer

Laurie Mier . . . Secretary

Class of 2004

President

There is no "I" in Congress, but there is one president.

Ryan Delaney

Chris Nebons

How about a revolution?

Vice President

With my past experience and Southern charm, I will be the best bet for Vice President.

Andrea Essner

Christopher Sagesse

Being a member of the Freshman Student Congress, I feel that we have offered a lot to the class and the school as a whole. I feel there is so much more we could do to improve our class and make sure the Class of 2004 have a memorable sophomore year. I will represent the class to my fullest ability and work as hard as I can to improve the wonderful years that our class has ahead of them.

Treasurer

If it made cents once, then do it again. Re-elect Meredith Strokes for '04 Treasurer!

Meredith Strokes

Jeffrey T. DiNapoli

Whatever you do, take care of your shoes.

Representatives (continued on back)

B.J. Killoy

The question isn't what are we going to do, it's what aren't we going to do.

Sarah Aspero

Re-elect Sarah. She's more fun than Snood.

Laurel Oberg

Re-elect Laurel Oberg as YOUR Student Congress Rep!! She works hard for the class of 2004, she even won a Congress award that says so!

Maria Lopez

Willing to take the right steps to get what you want.

Representatives (continued)

Katie Barczak

It is important to have a voice.
It is more important to use it.

Emily Petroni

They may take our shuttle ride, but they'll never take our freedom!

Stephanie Graham

My previous involvement in student government has provided me with the experience required in order to fulfill the needs of my fellow students. Vote Steph.

Megan Donn

No matter what your interests are, I am going to listen, and act for the Class of 2004.

Cristina Sardilli

Nothing happens by itself...it all will come your way, once you understand that you have to make it come your way, by your own exertions.
-Ben Stein

Stephanie Stockwell

I'll do my best: put me to the test; I won't rest 'till I finish the quest! Vote Steph.

Meredith Lynch

What you want, baby I got it. What you need, I'll achieve it. All I'm asking you to do is re-elect!

Kristina Tedeschi

I want to be the next Pat Bench!

Amanda Chaves

I am qualified to serve the Providence College community as Representative of the Class of 2004 due to my ambition, outgoing nature, and the desire to do what my peers feel is best for the school.

Jack Messner

Uncontested Secretary

Carolyn Blake

Elections Rules & Regulations

Excerpted from Student Congress standing legislation in Section three, Voting and Election Results.

Student Congress Elections take place on April 5 from 9:30 until 6:00.

All voting shall be conducted in the locations designated by the Elections Committee on Legislative Affairs. Voting for this election will take place in Raymond Cafeteria for freshmen and sophomores and in Lower Slavin for juniors and seniors.

Students vote by secret ballot and need their Providence College ID card to vote.

Ballots will be counted by the members of the Student Congress so designated by the Chairperson of the Subcommittee on Elections of the Committee on Legislative Affairs. Ballots shall be counted by the designated members of the Student Congress in the conference room of the Vice President for Student Services's Conference Room.

Election results will be become available three days after the election. Any time after an election, the candidate has the right to ask the Chairperson of the Subcommittee on Elections of the Committee on Legislative Affairs, by written request, to provide the election results for the office for which the candidate has run. Election results will be held for one year in the Office of the Vice President for Student Services.

Candidates should note that they are responsible for the conduct of all of their supporters. This includes verbal and written communication. On the day of the election, there can be no verbal campaigning or campaigning in class. That day, candidates are permitted only one trip to Slavin Center for the purpose of business in the administrative offices, voting, eating meals, or other affairs related to the student union. Candidates are only allotted one half hour to eat each meal in either Raymond Dining Hall or Alumni Hall.

Please consult the standing legislation of Student Congress, which can be obtained in the Student Congress Office in Slavin center or by calling x2419, for a more in-depth and precise look at these rules and regulations.

Remember: Bring your PC ID card to vote.